

Volunteer Policy

The Du Quoin Public Library recognizes and appreciates the hard work and unique talents the volunteers of the community offer to the Library throughout the year. All work performed by volunteers is done without compensation and at the risk of the volunteer. The Library does not carry insurance which protects the volunteer in the case of accidental injury.