

Disposal of Surplus Library Materials

Library property (i.e., print and non-print materials, equipment and supplies) which in the judgment of the Library Director is no longer necessary or useful for library purposes may be disposed of in the following manner:

1. Books, non-print materials, and gift items from the library's collection may be discarded, sold or be given to local philanthropic, educational, cultural, government, or other not-for-profit organizations.
2. Any other property having an individual current value of less than $100 may, at the discretion of the Library Director, be discarded, turned in on new equipment, or made available for sale.
3. In the case of individual surplus items having current value of more than $100 but less than $1,000, the Board may authorize a trade-in of such items on new equipment or sale of such items in accordance with the provisions of the Illinois Library Act.
4. No favoritism shall be shown to members of the Board of Directors or members of their immediate families who make bids on or purchase any library item declared surplus.
5. Any property having a unit value of more than $1,000 but less than $2,500 will be displayed at the Library and a public notice of its availability, the date, and terms of the proposed sale shall be posted in the library.
